JUDGMENT:(per BPR,J)

Heard both sides, and at their request, the main appeal itself is taken up for disposal.

The unsuccessful petitioner is the appellant herein who seeks to assail the orders of the learned Single Judge in the writ petition interalia seeking for a writ of prohibition against the third respondent herein in proceeding with the impugned notice in C.C.No.17 of 2000 dated 18-07-2000 on the file of the Principal Special Judge for SPE & ACB Cases-cum-IV Additional Chief Judge, City Civil Courts, Hyderabad.

Though several contentions are sought to be urged, the fact remains that the prosecution is under the provisions of Prevention of Corruption Act and charges have already been framed. Since it has not been a case pending before a regular Court, this Court does not interfere in such proceedings in exercise of the jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. Further, the appellant has also got all other alternative remedies, which are not availed.

Hence, we do not find any merits in the above appeal, and accordingly, the same is dismissed, with a liberty to the appellant herein to avail any such remedy as are available under Section 482 Cr.P.C or even by filing an appropriate application before the same Court, which would be considered uninfluenced by any of these findings. No costs.
